Secondary structures of proteins

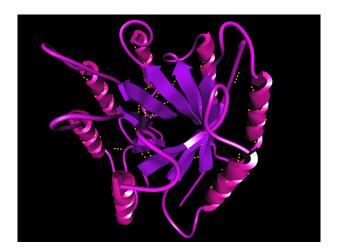

Proteins — linear polymers (peptide chains) folded in compact globules

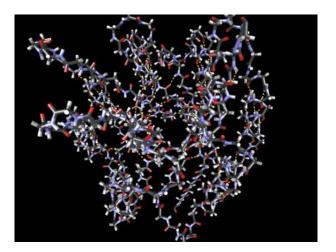

Secondary structures — standard conformations of peptide chains Myoglobin (lpha-helices)

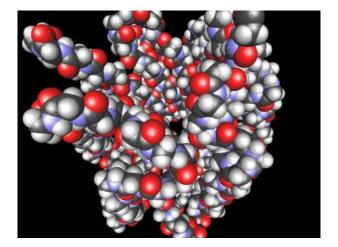

$\alpha\text{-helices}$ and $\beta\text{-chains}$

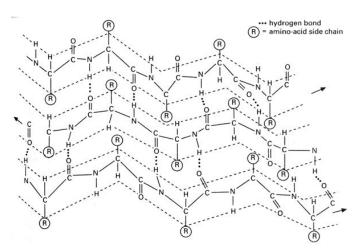

The same protein — scheme of the peptide chain

The same protein — the form which takes into account the sizes of the atoms

β -sheet — stairway like structure

lpha-helix

